

NETZEN Privacy Notice

NetzenBC is committed to respecting the personal privacy of individuals who visit our websites. This page summarizes the privacy policy and practices of NetzenBC websites.

NetzenBC does not automatically gather any personal information from you, such as your name, phone number, email or street address during your visit to its websites. This information is only obtained if you supply it voluntarily, usually through contacting us via e-mail, or registering in the contact form of the website.

All personal information you do provide is protected under the federal Privacy Act. This means that, at the point of collection, you will be informed that your personal information is being collected, the purpose for which it is being collected and that you have a right of access to the information.

NetzenBC uses software that receives and records the Internet Protocol (IP) addresses of computers that have connected with their Web sites. In such instances, NetzenBC makes no attempt to link these addresses with the identity of individuals visiting NetzenBC sites. Visitor information is not disclosed to anyone except NetzenBC personnel who need the information (e.g., to respond to a request). We do not use the information to create individual profiles, nor do we disclose this information to anyone outside NetzenBC.

Questions or comments regarding this policy, or the administration of the Privacy Act by NetzenBC may be directed to by accessing the Access to Information and Privacy website of NetzenBC. If you are not satisfied that we have adequately respected your privacy, you may wish to contact us at contacto@netzen.com.mx

Cookies

A cookie is a small text file that is stored on your hard drive. During your visit to any Web site your browser exchanges information with that Web site's server. Cookies facilitate this exchange by reminding the server which computer is making the request.

The cookies used by NetzenBC are not used to identify you personally. The information obtained through the use of these cookies may be shared with Google Analytics and Web Trends, which supply Web analytics services to NetzenBC. The information obtained through the use of these cookies is compiled into aggregated statistical reports used to analyze traffic patterns to, from and within our Web sites (for example, most visited pages) and to assess our Web sites' efficiency (for example, analysis of broken links). Such information may be used by NetzenBC for communications and information technology statistical purposes, auditing, evaluations, research, planning and reporting.

Visiting our Web site with cookies disabled will have no significant impact on your browsing experience. Rejecting cookies will not affect the site's performance or restrict your ability to access information from this site. You can set your browser to detect and reject cookies. Please consult your browser's Help Menu for instructions.

Accessibility notice
